Dear Mr. Stewart:

I am somewhat reluctant to respond to your letter of March 28, 2007 for two reasons. Firstly, I am not a civil lawyer, and am not insured to be one. As such, I cannot give you any legal advice on a civil claim. Secondly, you did fire me as your appellate criminal counsel two years ago having lost confidence in me.

Nevertheless, I will say this. My primary and best advice to you is to consult a civil counsel who has expertise in compensation claims for wrongful conviction. I can give you two names:

Louis Sokolov	416-979-6439
Julian Falconer	416-964-3408

They can give you excellent advice on any claim that you may have.

As regards clearing your name, the only realistic route for that, besides a civil claim, is to continue to demand a public inquiry into the case.

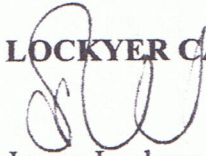

As regards a claim against Corrections Canada, Mr. Sokolov or Mr. Falconer could help you with this as well.

May I suggest you work in concert with your three former co-accused in deciding what to do from here on.

Congratulations on winning your appeal and I wish you all the best in the future.

Yours sincerely,

LOCKYER CAMPBELL POSNER
